

AGENDA

Regional Fire Management Training for Mongolia and Central Asia

Including Opening of the Regional Central Asia Fire Management Resource Center (RCAFMRC)

20-25 September 2015

Forestry Research and Training Center
Batsumber, Tuv province, Mongolia

20 September 2015 (Sunday)	Arrival of participants in Ulaanbaatar
19:50 – 22:00	Welcome Gathering and Briefing Location: Puma Imperial Hotel
21 September 2015 (Monday) Morning:	Opening Session Location: Mongolia-Japan Center Building (between the National University Building #1 and #2), Room # 204
	Opening Statements
09:30-09:40	Prof. Dr. B.Boldgiv, National University of Mongolia
09:40-09:50	Mr. M.Khurelsukh, Ministry of Environment, Green Development and Tourism (MEGDT)
09:50-10:00	Ms. Esra Buttanri, Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe (OSCE)
10:00-10:10	Mr. Daniel Valenghi, Swiss Cooperation Office in Mongolia
10:10-10:20	Prof. Dr. Johann G. Goldammer, Global Fire Monitoring Center (GFMC)
10:20-10:30	Colonel S.Zaluukhuu, National Emergency Management Agency (NEMA)
	Fire Situation and Fire Management in Central Asia: Country Reports (one Speaker per Country)
10:30-10:40	Mongolia
10:40-10:50	Kazakhstan
10:50-11:00	Uzbekistan
11:00-11:10	Kyrgyzstan

11:10-12:00	Opening of the Regional Central Asia Fire Management Resource Center (RCAFMRC) in Ulaanbaatar Location: National University Building #3
Afternoon:	Departure of the training group to the field camp (Forestry Research and Training Center of the National University of Mongolia, Batsumber, Tuv province, Mongolia, 50 km north of Ulaanbaatar)
22 September 2015 (Tuesday) Morning:	Introduction of training materials in Russian and Mongolian language (EuroFire Standards) (Part I) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▫ Basics of fire ecology and fire behavior in Central Asian forest and steppe ecosystems ▫ Hand tools ▫ Fireline safety ▫ Ignition
Afternoon:	Fire management field training
23 September 2015 (Wednesday) Morning:	Introduction of training materials in Russian and Mongolian language (EuroFire Standards) (Part II)
Afternoon:	Fire management field training (continuation)
24 September 2015 (Thursday) Morning:	Wrapping up of the training course, including discussion of follow up on regional and international cooperation in fire management <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▫ Discussion on the outcomes of the training course: Follow-up in Central Asian countries ▫ Cross-boundary cooperation in fire management: The international perspective (GFMC) ▫ Cross-boundary cooperation in fire management: The regional Central Asian perspective (RCAFMRC)
Afternoon:	Return to Ulaanbaatar
25 September 2015 (Friday)	Departure of participants from Ulaanbaatar