

Training course on prescribed fire

Certified by ICNF* for the accreditation of prescribed fire managers

* Instituto da Conservação da Natureza e das Florestas – Institute for Nature Conservation and Forests

Course recipients

Holders of a BSc (or higher) academic degree, with a background in forestry, agronomy, biology, ecology, environmental sciences or related fields.

Course fee

Students registered in the MSc in Forest Resources: FREE

External students: 1200 €

Important dates

Start 25th September 2015

Theoretical component: 49 hours at ESAC, Coimbra
Practical field burns: 70 hours in different areas

Registration 13th July to 20th September 2015. Additional information on the ESAC website

Send application or information requests to Joaquim Sande Silva jss@esac.pt

Application to the Master in Forest Resources (direct access to the Training Course in Prescribed Fire) until the 31st of August

Course with 119 hours. Conditioned to a minimum number of 7 external students and a maximum of 24. The Course fee includes the registration, Course certificate and insurance (when applicable); it DOES NOT include travelling, meals, accommodation nor the personal safety gear (compulsory).